

Pension Insurance Plan

You retire from your work, not from your Life!

You have toiled your entire life and have reaped the benefits of it in your earning years. Does that mean that your life goals should also retire when you hang up your boots? Absolutely not!

Live your life the way you have been in your working years and fulfil your life goals - going to that dream destination, picking up a hobby, leaving a legacy or to simply be Atmanirbhar. Regardless of what your life goals are, you need to have a strong financial plan to realize them.

With Global Insurance Pension Plan, you won't have to worry. This plan provides you with guaranteed income for your entire life with a wide range of annuity options that can provide a secure future for you and your spouse. Not only that, but with the Deferred Annuity option, you can decide when you would want the income to start. In this option, you can choose to start your income any time within a period of upto 10 years. Once the income starts, it is guaranteed for life. So, lock higher annuity rates today for a secured and fulfilling life tomorrow.
